TRIBUTE

POEM
‘Remember Me’

Do not shed tears when I have gone,
but smile instead because I have lived.
Do not shut your eyes and pray to God that I’ll come back,
but open your eyes and see all that I have left behind.

I know your heart will be empty because you cannot see me,
but still I want you to be full of the love we shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live only for yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of what happened
between us yesterday.

You can remember me and grieve that I have gone,
or you can cherish my memory and let it live on.
You can cry and lose yourself, become distraught
and turn your back on the world...

...or you can do what I want,
smile, wipe away the tears, learn to love again and go on.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen

CLOSING WORDS

POEM

'Afterglow'

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times, and laughing times,
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave, when life is done.
